(Court called to order.)

THE CLERK: We're on the record, Docket Number MI22W1174,
Amanda Kaelblein v. Michael Speight.

THE COURT: All right. It's now 10:49 a.m. on Thursday,
November 3 of the year 2022. This is Judge Phelan. I am a Massachusetts Probate and Family Court Judge, and today I'm hearing this Massachusetts Department of Revenue Child Support case, on my computer screen using zoom. On my screen, I see a name. It says Amanda Kaelblein, is that you, Amanda?

MS. KAEUBLEIN: It is, yes.

THE COURT: Is it all right if I call you Amanda during the hearing?

MS. KAEUBLEIN: Yes.

THE COURT: All right. And another name I see on my screen, it says Michael Speight. Is that you, Michael?

MR. SPEIGHT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Is it all right if I call you Michael today
during the hearing?

MR. SPEIGHT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: All right. And the other person who's with us,
I also see his name on the screen. This is Attorney Stephan.
He is a lawyer, but he does not work for me or the Judges. He does work for the Massachusetts Department of Revenue Child
Support Office. So what we're going to do here before Amanda,

1 Michael and I talk back and forth about what the right amount of 2 child support should be, I'm going to ask Attorney Stephan to 3 first -- information about this case. Attorney Stephan, go
4 ahead.

5 MR. STEPHAN: Good morning, Your Honor. Before you today
6 is a support complaint filed by the Department seeking support
7 for the party's five year old child. The Department conferenced
8 the case this morning and the defendant refused to submit a 9 financial statement. And I was told he was quite abusive to the 10 DOR worker who tried to conference the case with the parties.
11 As a result of him having failed to provide us with his 12 financial statement, we used the wage information we have for 13 the defendant from his employer for the last quarter, and that 14 results in a weekly gross average of around $1,100. And the 15 resulting guidelines amount, Judge, is $228 based on his wage
16 reported from his employer. The Department is asking that a
17 support judgment enter today for $228 a week.

18 THE COURT: Well, there are a couple of pieces of 19 information I still need.

20 MR. SPEIGHT: Your Honor, Your Honor, Your Honor -- Your 21 Honor, can I --

22 THE COURT: Michael, Michael, Michael, Michael, just hold
23 on a second.

24 Attorney Stephan, there's some information I need. Number
25 one, what was the date of service on Michael?

1 MR. STEPHAN: August 19th, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: All right. And you said the most -- you said
3 the recent quarter or the last quarter, I'm assuming third
4 quarter of 2022 reported wages. Is that what you mean?

5 MR. STEPHAN: That's correct. Yes. His weekly --

6 THE COURT: And the other piece of -- the other piece of 7 info --

8 MR. STEPHAN: The weekly gross -- the weekly gross was 9 1142.

10 THE COURT: All right. And the other piece of --

11 MR. SPEIGHT: That's not true.

12 THE COURT: -- information I need is, is Amanda receiving a
13 cash public benefit from the state of Massachusetts?

14 MR. STEPHAN: No, Your Honor. She -- her weekly gross
15 income is 1326.

16 THE COURT: Any credits to either Amanda or Michael in the 17 calculation of the child support?

18 MR. STEPHAN: Yes, there was health insurance was 85 and 19 dental and vision was 23.

20 THE COURT: So who's that for? Michael or Amanda?

21 MR. STEPHAN: Let me just double check, Judge.

22 MR. SPEIGHT: I pay 11.75 an hour for health insurance.
23 For me and my --

24 THE COURT: That was for -- Michael, hold on, Michael. I'm 25 talking to Attorney Stephan. I'll get to you in a minute.

1 MR. STEPHAN: Mother was given credit for $85 a week she 2 pays for health insurance and $23 a week she pays for dental and 3 vision. He didn't submit a financial, Judge, so we weren't able 4 to --

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 MR. STEPHAN: -- get any information from him.

7 MR. SPEIGHT: That's -- that's -- that's not true. I
8 submitted it to New Hampshire.

9 THE COURT: Michael, Michael, Michael, Michael --

10 MR. SPEIGHT: I submitted it --

11 THE COURT: Michael, Michael, Michael, please listen to me.
12 So what we're going to do here is I'm going to explain to you
13 first how we calculate the child support that Attorney Stephan -

15 MR. SPEIGHT: I already know how you calculate it. You're 16 the only state --

17 THE COURT: Michael --

18 MR. SPEIGHT: -- in the whole country --

19 THE COURT: Michael -- Michael -- Michael --

20 MR. SPEIGHT: -- that didn't reform your child support
21 laws.

22 THE COURT: Michael -- Michael -- Michael -- Michael, this
23 is the last time I'm going to caution you. Stop talking over 24 me. When I ask you to stop talking, I need you to stop talking.
25 If you do not comply with that instruction, I'm going to put you

1 on mute. I don't want to have to do that, Michael. But if you
2 keep interrupting me and talking over me, you will be on mute.

3 So now I'm going to explain to you how Attorney Stephan
4 came to $228 per week. In Massachusetts, we use a formula.
5 It's called the Child Support Guidelines Formula. It's based on 6 the average gross, gross means before they take out the taxes,
7 average gross weekly income of both the mother and the father.
8 And that gets put into a computer formula. So Amanda reported
9 that she was earning $1,326 gross, and she also reported that 10 she was paying $85 a week health insurance, $23 a week dental
11 and vision insurance. We didn't know any information about 12 Michael because apparently the information didn't come forth in 13 the conversation that Michael had this morning with the DOR
14 worker. So if you are paying for health insurance or dental and 15 vision, if you want to get credit for that, Michael, to lower 16 the child support amount, you need to tell us that information.
17 You should have told that to DOR this morning.

18 So what Attorney Stephan did, was he went into the DOR
19 database and discovered that for the third quarter of the year,
20 2022, third quarter means the months of July, August, and 21 September, your employer, Michael, reported to DOR that they 22 paid you a certain amount of money. And over that 13 week
23 period, your average gross was $1,142 per week.

24 So let me ask you this, Michael. Do you pay for or is it
25 taken out of your pay, health insurance? Michael?

1 MR. SPEIGHT: Yes, I pay 11.75 an hour. It's $22,000 a
2 year I pay for health insurance, dental, vision, everything.
3 And -- and I'm the primary insurer because I'm older than she
4 is. So I pay $22,000 --

5 THE COURT: So you said you paid -- Michael -- Michael --
6 Michael -- Michael -- Michael --

7 MR. SPEIGHT: Yeah.

8 THE COURT: Michael, you said $22,000. Is it exactly
9 $22,000, or is it a little bit more or a little bit less?

10 MR. SPEIGHT: It's 11.75 times 1200 hours.

11 THE COURT: 11.75 times 1200 hours. All right, let me just 12 calculate that. 11.75 times 1200 hours, that comes out to 13 $14,100. So did I make a mistake in my math, or didn't you say
14 $22,000?

15 MR. SPEIGHT: No. No, sometimes I work over 1500 hours and 16 I end up paying more.

17 THE COURT: All right, so if it's 14,100 over the course of 18 a year, if I divide that by 52 weeks. That's an average of $271
19 a week for health and dental and vision. Does that sound right,
20 Michael?

21 MR. SPEIGHT: Yes.

22 THE COURT: Okay, so now we know one more piece of 23 information. While I'm talking to Michael, Attorney Stephan, if 24 you could put that into the computer formula and credit Michael 25 for the $271, health, dental, and vision.

1 Okay, next question, Michael, I'm going to ask you all
2 about your expenses in a minute. Your rent, your mortgage,
3 food, internet, cable, cell phone, car, credit cards, all those 4 kinds of things. But before I do, that, the 228, again, that
5 was arrived at by the computer formula, the Child Support
6 Guidelines Formula by Attorney Stephan, without knowing the 7 information from Michael that he was paying an average of $271 a 8 week for health, dental, and vision. So we'll get the new 9 number in a minute.

10 MR. STEPHAN: 182, Judge.

11 THE COURT: 182. All right, so instead of 228, it's now
12 down to 182 is the computer formula amount.

13 So before I ask you, Michael, all about those expenses, let 14 me ask you this. Is there an amount of child support that you
15 think you could afford to pay and still have enough left over
16 from your pay to pay your own living expenses, Michael, is there
17 an amount you have in mind?

18 MR. SPEIGHT: Your Honor, I've been giving her $200 a week
19 without being ordered to, I don't want the DOR in my life. You
20 can ask her. Ever since she left, I've been giving her $200 a 21 week. And some weeks, I gave her money for school clothes.
22 Some -- some weeks, I gave her extra money to get my daughter
23 things. I asked her if my daughter needed school clothes.
24 There's no reason that we --

25 THE COURT: Michael --

1 MR. SPEIGHT: -- that -- there's no reason -- what?

2 THE COURT: Michael, let me -- let me explain something.

3 The reason -- the reason we're here today is that Amanda asked
4 the Department of Revenue for assistance. She didn't ask him
5 for money. She asked him for assistance in collecting child
6 support. So you told me that you were paying --

7 MR. SPEIGHT: She --

8 THE COURT: Michael -- Michael, you just told me you were 9 paying $200 a week voluntarily. Let me ask you, Amanda, is that 10 accurate or not?

11 MS. KAELEBLEIN: It's accurate for the last few months,
12 that's correct.

13 THE COURT: Okay, so now we've established that the past
14 few months --

15 MR. SPEIGHT: And you -- and you --

16 THE COURT: Michael -- Michael -- Michael -- Michael --

17 MR. SPEIGHT: Yeah.

18 THE COURT: Nyle, are you there?

19 THE CLERK: Yeah.

20 THE COURT: Put Michael on mute. He's not following my 21 instructions. He keeps interrupting.

22 THE CLERK: Okay.

23 THE COURT: Put him on mute.

24 THE CLERK: All right.

25 THE COURT: Let the record -- let the tape recording show

1 that we have put Michael on mute. He can still hear what we are
2 saying, but we've put him on mute due to his constant
3 interruption and his refusal to follow the Judge's instructions.

4 So Amanda agrees with Michael that he's been paying her
5 about $200 a week voluntarily for the past few months. So it
6 sounds like right now, the -- because he's paying the health
7 insurance he pays -- do you think that that's accurate, Amanda?
8 I don't know if you know Michael's business or not, but he says
9 he's paying what -- what amounts to an average of $271 a week
10 for health, dental, and vision insurance. Does that sound
11 accurate to you, Amanda?

12 MS. KAELEBLEIN: So the average -- it may be accurate, but 13 it's -- it's involved in his earnings that you already 14 calculated prior to taking it out. That's what they take out of 15 his pay, including his pension and annuity. So his salary was 16 correct with the insurance taking out of it.

17 THE COURT: So are you --

18 MR. STEPHAN: You mean before or after?

19 THE COURT: Are you saying --

20 MS. KAELEBLEIN: I'm saying the number that you have from 21 the DOR, it already includes the insurance being taken out of 22 it. It's not -- it's not taken separately.

23 THE COURT: All right, so -- so, again, Amanda, you may or 24 may not know his business. I don't know if you have any 25 communication with Michael or not, but he told me that at the

1 rate of 11.75 an hour for 1200 hours a year, that's his debit,
2 so to speak, out of his pay for health, dental and vision
3 coverage, that averages $271 a week. So right now, --

4 MS. KAEUBLEIN: Yeah. I'm sorry.

5 THE COURT: Right now, I'm just focused on his health,
6 dental and vision. I'm not focused on his --

7 MS. KAEUBLEIN: Judge, with all due respect, I -- I -- he 8 didn't turn in the information. So I'm not --

9 THE COURT: Right. So I'm just ask -- yeah, I'm just 10 asking you if you know, if you don't know, that's okay.

11 MS. KAEUBLEIN: Yeah, I don't -- I don't know if that's 12 accurate, and I would like to know if that's accurate.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 MS. KAEUBLEIN: (Inaudible at 13:14:00, low audio.)

15 MR. STEPHAN: Judge, --

16 THE COURT: Attorney Stephan -- Attorney Stephan --

17 MR. STEPHAN: Sure --

18 THE COURT: Attorney Stephan -- Attorney Stephan, can I
19 speak? My question to you, Attorney Stephan, is this, the third
20 quarter, 2022 wage reporting that you mentioned to me, are you
21 sure it's $1,142 gross average per week?

22 MR. STEPHAN: Yes, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Okay. And you got that from wage reporting
24 from the employer? Would that be accurate?

25 MR. STEPHAN: Yes. He's a union worker. He's working at a

1 steel company.

2 THE COURT: All right, so, Amanda, even without me asking
3 Michael his expenses, if it's accurate that he does pay or gets
4 taken out of his pay, $271 per week, the Child Support Guideline
5 amount by law, which I'm supposed to order him to pay even 6 without knowing his expenses, his -- his expenses actually might 7 lower that amount, it's 182 a week, which is less than the $200
8 that you've just stated to us, you've confirmed that he's been 9 paying you that for the past few months. So what do you want me
10 to do, Amanda? Do -- so this is a -- a support complaint. Are 11 you satisfied with Michael continuing to pay you $200 a week or 12 do you want me to take Michael off mute and ask him about his 13 expenses, which might affect the 182 guideline amount? What 14 would you like me to do, Amanda?

15 MS. KAELBLEIN: Judge, my only question is, I mean, I -- we 16 recently separated, so I have been with him for the last five 17 years. So I also have his employers that he does side work for.
18 And so I would be happy with the $228 that you just mentioned.
19 Unless you want me to pass over the names of the people that he 20 works for on the side and gets paid cash for.

21 THE COURT: All right, so what we're going to do here is,
22 Nyle, if you're with us still, if you could take Michael off
23 mute. But before you do that, I need Michael to answer the 24 question. This is my question, Michael. Amanda says that she 25 has some kind of information or she believes that you also do

1 side work and get paid cash. And I think what I'm hearing is 2 that maybe that's not showing up on the wage reporting in the 3 DOR database. So my question to you, Michael, is, number one,
4 do you work on the side? And if so, how much money do you earn?
5 Michael.

6 Nyle, you can take them off mute.

7 THE CLERK: Mr. Speight, you're going to have to click on 8 mute on your phone.

9 THE COURT: Michael, are you with us?

10 MR. SPEIGHT: Yeah, I do side work sometimes, Your Honor.
11 Sometimes. It depends if it's available or not.

12 THE COURT: All right. Can you give me an example now, now
13 is the month of November. From January 1 of this year to now,
14 do you have any estimation of how much you might have earned
15 from the side work?

16 MR. SPEIGHT: Probably about $2,000, $3,000. I haven't
17 been doing much side work.

18 THE COURT: Okay. 2000 or 3,000. So that would be like,
19 maybe $40 a week, $60 a week. Somewhere around there. I'm not 20 sure that would increase the numbers that much if that's the -- 21 if that's the case, Amanda.

22 Michael, is it -- what is it, like, a construction company?
23 A landscaping company? Masonry. What do you do on the side
24 work?

25 MR. SPEIGHT: I -- I go to union guys' houses and I help

1 them out with their foundations. I -- once in a while, a kid
2 will call me and he needs me to lay out a step. So I lay it out
3 for him and he finishes it. Plowing, sometimes shoveling. I
4 mean, it all depends, Your Honor, if the work is available, I
5 take it. Lately I haven't been taking any because I've been
6 concentrating on getting back to work for the union. Right now
7 I'm on unemployment and I get $724 a week. DOR knows that --

8 MS. KAEUBLEIN: Your Honor, can I ask a question -- can I
9 ask --

10 THE COURT: No, no, no. Hold on -- hold on a second. Hold 11 on a second. Hold on a second, Amanda. It's Michael's turn.

12 MS. KAEUBLEIN: Yes, no problem.

13 THE COURT: In a minute. It'll be your turn in a minute.
14 So, Michael, you just said, I think I heard you say you're on 15 unemployment. How long have you been on unemployment?

16 MR. SPEIGHT: Three weeks.

17 THE COURT: Okay. And do you normally go on unemployment
18 each year?

19 MR. SPEIGHT: Yes, during the winter. I'm a seasonal 20 worker.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Let me ask you -- now it's Amanda's
22 turn. Don't interrupt, Michael.

23 Amanda, he says that it's seasonal work and during the 24 winter usually doesn't work. You say you lived with them for 25 five years. Is that accurate or not?

1 MS. KAELEBLEIN: Unfortunately, none of this is accurate
2 just because I know his income obviously based off of the last
3 five years. Your Honor, am I able to ask, is Michael willing to 4 -- he goes by Sean to me. I'm used to calling him Sean. Sorry,
5 but it's a weird thing, Michael, but is Michael willing to 6 settle at the 228 and just be done with this?

7 THE COURT: Michael she -- she says that she'll accept 228
8 a week. Is that something you're interested in or not?

9 MR. SPEIGHT: Your Honor, we can settle on it, but I'm 10 appealing it to Superior Court because the child hasn't lived in 11 Massachusetts for six months.

12 THE COURT: Amanda --

13 MS. KAELEBLEIN: Your Honor, he's doing the settlement
14 dance.

15 THE COURT: -- so he says -- hold on a second. Hold on a 16 second. Hold on a second, both of you.

17 Amanda, this question is for you. Michael says that the 18 child hasn't lived in Massachusetts. Now, that doesn't mean
19 that she's not entitled to child support. What matters is, does
20 the child actually reside with Amanda? Amanda, does the child
21 reside with you?

22 MS. KAELEBLEIN: She does. Yeah.

23 THE COURT: All right. What state do you live in, Amanda?

24 MS. KAELEBLEIN: Massachusetts.

25 THE COURT: All right. So, Michael, why do you think the

1 child doesn't live in Massachusetts? What information do you
2 have?

3 MR. SPEIGHT: I didn't -- I didn't say that, Your Honor.
4 What I said is, it's a child state law, home state law. The 5 child has to live in a state for six months before any --
6 anything can be filed. Also, Derry Family District Court
7 already ruled they have jurisdiction over this case. Stephan
8 knows that. My lawyer talked to Stephan.

9 THE COURT: So, Amanda --

10 MS. KAELEBLEIN: Your Honor, this is --

11 MR. SPEIGHT: This is already --

12 THE COURT: Amanda -- no, no, no. Stop. Michael --
13 Michael, please. It's Amanda's turn. I'm trying to ask a
14 question to Amanda.

15 Amanda, did you recently live in New Hampshire and moved to 16 Massachusetts?

17 MS. KAELEBLEIN: My legal address and Vivian's legal 18 address, her schooling, her ABA services for her autism have 19 always been in Massachusetts. I don't -- I don't see how this 20 pertains, honestly, just because this is for child support. But 21 I do have to say, we did reside with Michael for a short period
22 of time and we left due to a dangerous situation. And he had 23 asked us to leave because of the dangerous -- dangerous --

24 THE COURT: All right. So, Amanda -- Amanda -- Amanda, I
25 need you to focus on my question. You said you didn't think it

1 mattered. It does matter.

2 MS. KAELEBLEIN: Okay.

3 THE COURT: Did another State Court, specifically New
4 Hampshire, did they already issue a child support order
5 involving this child and Michael?

6 MS. KAELEBLEIN: No, they have not.

7 THE COURT: Is that correct, Michael?

8 MR. SPEIGHT: They're ordering on the 15th, Your Honor.
9 The child has been out of New Hampshire five months now.
10 They're ordering the child support and visitation on the 15th.
11 I haven't seen my daughter in five months, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: All right. So -- so Michael -- Michael -- 13 Michael, let me ask you this.

14 So it sounds to me, Michael, that there's a case that was 15 already filed in the state of New Hampshire and you're waiting
16 for a hearing. Is that right, Michael?

17 MR. SPEIGHT: Yes. June 3rd, the case was filed for 18 custody and child support. And they -- they --

19 THE COURT: All right. So who filed -- Michael -- Michael 20 -- Michael -- Michael, who filed the case? Was it you or 21 Amanda?

22 MR. SPEIGHT: I -- I did.

23 THE COURT: All right. So, Amanda, did Michael file a case
24 involving custody and child support regarding this --

25 MS. KAELEBLEIN: He did.

1 THE COURT: -- in New Hampshire?

2 MS. KAELEBLEIN: He filed the chase -- case for custody in 3 New Hampshire that we never --

4 MR. SPEIGHT: And -- and child support. And child support.

5 THE COURT: Amanda -- Amanda -- Amanda, when did he -- when 6 did you get served with the paperwork that Michael filed about 7 the custody and possibly child support in New Hampshire? When 8 did you get served?

9 MS. KAELEBLEIN: Sometime in July.

10 THE COURT: You were served in July? Okay. And is there -

12 MS. KAELEBLEIN: For custody, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Amanda -- Amanda -- Amanda, please listen to my 14 question. My question to Amanda is this, are you aware of a
15 Court date scheduled for the hearing on the case that Michael 16 filed?

17 MS. KAELEBLEIN: I am aware of a hearing that involves -- 18 involves child custody, not child support.

19 THE COURT: And when is that date of the hearing?

20 MS. KAELEBLEIN: November 15th.

21 THE COURT: All right. And, Michael, you say that the case
22 that you filed is not just custody, but it's child support. Is 23 that what you're telling me, Michael?

24 MR. SPEIGHT: Yes. I checked off all the boxes, Your 25 Honor. Child support, custody, I got the paperwork right here -

2 THE COURT: He says -- Amanda -- Amanda -- Amanda, do you
3 have a copy of the -- of the complaint that Michael filed in the 4 Court in New Hampshire? Do you have that with you?

5 MS. KAELEBLEIN: I might have it with me in my email.
6 There's a lot of things filed.

7 THE COURT: Well, didn't you get -- didn't you get filed --
8 didn't you get served in person at your house with physical 9 papers?

10 MS. KAELEBLEIN: No, I did not get served in person.

11 MR. SPEIGHT: No, she was in Florida with the kid --

12 THE COURT: Michael -- Michael -- Michael, it's a question
13 to Amanda.

14 So, Amanda --

15 MS. KAELEBLEIN: I was not served in person.

16 THE COURT: Amanda -- Amanda -- Amanda, please don't make 17 me put both of you on mute.

18 MS. KAELEBLEIN: I'm sorry. I was just answering your 19 question. I was not -- no, I was not served in person.

20 THE COURT: So you were not served in person. So how did
21 you get served, Amanda?

22 MS. KAELEBLEIN: There was a letter in the mailbox.

23 THE COURT: All right, so the service was by mail, but not 24 in your hand, but it was in your mailbox?

25 MS. KAELEBLEIN: Correct.

1 THE COURT: All right. And the box --

2 MR. STEPHAN: Judge, I have information on that if you'd 3 like it.

4 THE COURT: I'm going to get to your next Attorney Stephan,
5 please, I'm talking with Amanda right now.

6 So, Amanda, do you have the paperwork that you received in 7 the mailbox? Do you have that in your house?

8 MS. KAELEBLEIN: I don't have it with me right now. No.

9 THE COURT: But is it in your house? Can you locate it?

10 MS. KAELEBLEIN: Yes, I'd be able to locate it. Yes.

11 THE COURT: All right, so why don't you step away from your 12 phone or your computer and go --

13 MS. KAELEBLEIN: Judge, I'm at -- I'm at work right now, so
14 I'm not at home.

15 THE COURT: Oh, you're at work. Okay. All right.

16 So, Michael, do you have a copy of the paperwork that was -

18 MR. SPEIGHT: Yes, I have it. I have it, Your Honor, I can 19 read it off to you.

20 THE COURT: All right, read it off to me.

21 MR. SPEIGHT: It says Temporary Petition, Request the Court
22 Orders Temporary Petition, respectfully request the Court to 23 issue temporary orders of the following issue. Final, the 24 petition respectfully requests the Court to issue final orders
25 approving and establishment the following, check if they apply.

1 A parenting plan which describes parties' parental rights and
2 responsibilities where related to the minor child; child support
3 obligations for the minor child; and other custody. I
4 acknowledge and have continued duty to inform the Court, any 5 Court action in this, and any other state could affect the 6 child's case. I swear that the full bearing information is true
7 and correct to the best of my knowledge. New Hampshire,
8 Rockingham County, June 3rd.

9 THE COURT: All right. And, Amanda, when -- when did you
10 notice those papers in your mailbox?

11 MS. KAELEBLEIN: Sometime in July.

12 THE COURT: And when did you contact the Massachusetts
13 Department of Revenue for assistance in collecting child support
14 from Michael?

15 MS. KAELEBLEIN: Before I received that paperwork, I called 16 them. I want to say June 6th, I think I called to check, it was 17 June 6th, and they asked if I wanted to reopen the case. I said
18 yes. They called again to make sure I wanted to reopen the 19 case. I said yes. And then they called two weeks ago to say
20 that Michael wanted it moved to New Hampshire, and they asked if 21 I still wanted to proceed in Massachusetts, and I told them yes.

22 THE COURT: All right, so now, Attorney Stephan, let me ask
23 you this. What was the date of service on Michael? I think you
24 told me August 19th;, right?

25 MR. STEPHAN: Let me check, Judge. I've -- I've spoken to

1 the defendant's attorney who represents him on his case in New
2 Hampshire. He filed the complaint for parenting time in New 3 Hampshire. And I went over this with his attorney. I had 4 several conversations with him. Child support was not pled in 5 New Hampshire. That's why we're going forward with it in 6 Massachusetts. But I have spoken to his attorney about this at 7 length, and he didn't plead that the Court enter an order for 8 child support against him in New Hampshire. That's why we filed
9 in Massachusetts.

10 THE COURT: So Michael, Attorney Stephan says that you
11 didn't mark the box that says child support.

12 MR. SPEIGHT: Your Honor, I have it right in front of me.
13 I did mark the box. I marked every box. This is my daughter, 14 my five year old daughter. Yes. I want to take care of her.

15 THE COURT: All right. So what we're going to have to do
16 is this, Michael -- Michael, what we're going to have to do is 17 this, Michael and Amanda, I'm going to need a copy from the New 18 Hampshire Court of the document that was actually filed by 19 Michael to see whether he actually checked the box that says
20 child support. And the reason is this, we can't have two 21 different child support cases going on at the same time in two 22 different states. If another state has already taken
23 jurisdiction of the issue of child support, I'm not saying New 24 Hampshire has or hasn't, then the child support issue would 25 belong in the New Hampshire Court. I don't know what's accurate

1 right now. Michael is telling me one thing. Attorney Stephan
2 is telling me something else. Amanda agrees with Attorney
3 Stephan that there was no child support request. Michael 4 insists that there was in New Hampshire. So I'm not going to 5 take any action right now about child support until I know
6 definitively by getting a copy of the filing in New Hampshire by 7 Michael to see whether he checked the child support box. So I'm 8 going to continue this without any sort of order.

9 Attorney Stephan, I need you to get a copy of the filing in 10 New Hampshire, and schedule another date and notify Amanda and 11 Michael about the next date. Hopefully we'll get some clarity
12 after we see that New Hampshire filing. All right?

13 Let me start with you, Amanda. Any questions you'd like to 14 ask?

15 MS. KAELEBLEIN: Yeah, my only question is, honestly, since 16 this is about his daughter, I'm confused why he won't settle on 17 paying money towards her through the system. It's either --
18 wherever it's out of, it's about her. And I just -- it's really 19 disheartening to see that this is the combative behavior that 20 I've been dealing with for the last six months.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 MS. KAELEBLEIN: So my question is timeline for when he has 23 to get this information in just because I need this to -- he's 24 been unreliable in the past. And so I need this order to be in 25 place.

1 THE COURT: Let me ask you this, Amanda. When is the last 2 time Michael paid the $200 he says he was voluntarily paying?

3 MS. KAELEBLEIN: He paid it last week. I asked him for it
4 this week, and he did not send it to me, so.

5 MR. SPEIGHT: That's not true, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: So as recently a week ago or so -- Michael -- 7 as recently as a week ago or so, Michael paid you $200 as he has 8 for the past few months. Is that right, Amanda?

9 MS. KAELEBLEIN: Right. And so my question, can I ask
10 again, Your Honor, is why he will not just settle on this so
11 that I can go through the DOR, because this is about our 12 daughter?

13 THE COURT: Michael, do you want to answer that? Go ahead.

14 MR. SPEIGHT: Yes. First of all, I don't -- listen, I can 15 pay my own bills. I don't need the DOR to get involved in my 16 life; right?

17 THE COURT: Well --

18 MR. SPEIGHT: I don't need the Court to be --

19 THE COURT: So, Michael -- Michael -- Michael -- Michael --

20 MR. SPEIGHT: Yeah.

21 THE COURT: So we're here.

22 MR. SPEIGHT: Yeah.

23 THE COURT: Amanda is trying to resolve this without 24 further Court activity, either here or New Hampshire or through 25 the Massachusetts DOR. She's asking, would you like to resolve

1 it and settle it right now?

2 MR. SPEIGHT: I'll give her the 228, Your Honor, without
3 the DOR going into my check and taking the money. I'll pay
4 myself.

5 THE COURT: Amanda, he says he'll pay you 228, but not
6 going through DOR. What do you say?

7 MS. KAELEBLEIN: If I can ask just how that -- how that
8 works, so that, like, what happens if he does not pay it? I
9 mean, I'm just confused why you won't go for -- through the DOR.
10 I'm talking to you on a personal level, Sean. This is about our 11 child. This isn't very, very --

12 MR. SPEIGHT: Because Amanda, listen. I'll take -- Amanda, 13 I'll take care of my daughter. You know that. You lived with 14 me, I paid all the bills.

15 MS. KAELEBLEIN: I know you -- I don't -- I'm not saying you
16 won't -- I'm get -- trying to get along with you.

17 MR. SPEIGHT: All right. So stop -- listen, so stop --

18 MS. KAELEBLEIN: No, I'm trying to --

19 MR. SPEIGHT: Listen, so stop saying that -- please stop
20 saying that it's about our daughter, and I can't believe you --

21 THE COURT: All right. Nyle -- Nyle, could you put them
22 both on mute, please?

23 THE CLERK: Yeah.

24 THE COURT: All right. Let the record show 11:19 a.m. The 25 Judge has instructed our administrative assistant today to put

1 both Amanda and Michael on mute, and what I'll do is I'll
2 schedule this, you know, I don't know if there's a restraining
3 order in effect between the two of you. If there is, then there
4 shouldn't be any contact, or at least according to what the 5 terms of the restraining order are. But I understand that 6 Michael is willing to pay what Amanda wants, which is 228 per 7 week, but Michael doesn't want to do it through the Department
8 of Revenue. That would be an extra step. If, for example,
9 Amanda agreed for Michael to pay the 228, but without going
10 through the Department of Revenue, if he started to -- to miss
11 some payments or if he wasn't paying the full 228, then Amanda
12 could contact DOR and we'd be back in the same spot, of 13 wondering whether it's New Hampshire or Massachusetts, which has 14 jurisdiction over the child support issue.

15 If there is no restraining order in effect between the two 16 of you, I would urge Amanda and Michael to try to resolve this 17 either with or without the Department of Revenue. It's up to 18 you. I understand that both of you want to be involved parents,
19 there are high emotions going on right now. But again, it's up
20 to you. If there's no restraining order, if you want to contact 21 each other for the 228 with or without the Department of 22 Revenue, that's between the two of you.

23 In the meantime, I am going to ask Attorney Stephan to get 24 that copy of the -- of the New Hampshire Court filing to see
25 whether the child support box was marked or not. Even if it

1 wasn't, then we're here in Massachusetts dealing with the -- the 2 DOR case, which is why we're here today.

3 MR. STEPHAN: Judge, if I could just add something.

4 THE COURT: What?

5 MR. STEPHAN: If Your Honor -- if Your Honor wanted to 6 enter an order today for $228 a week by suspended wage
7 assignment, that means he's to pay her directly. But if he 8 doesn't pay her directly, mother can request that it be by wage
9 assignment, and we can start doing it by wage assignment. So as 10 long as he pays faithfully 228 a week, he doesn't have to have 11 DOR involved. But if he doesn't, mother can request that it be 12 by wage assignment, and then we would become involved.

13 THE COURT: So even if it's suspended wage assignment, that 14 means that the DOR case is still on the table, Attorney Stephan;
15 correct?

16 MR. STEPHAN: There would be a Court order in place, but it
17 would be a non-4D case, which means it would be a state case
18 registry only case. So it would be on our system that there's 19 an order in effect for $228 a week, but he's going to pay her
20 directly, so we just have a record of the order on our computer
21 system. However, if he doesn't pay her faithfully $228 a week,
22 mother can contact the Department and ask that we implement a
23 wage assignment, which we will do.

24 THE COURT: All right.

25 MR. STEPHAN: So as long as he pays, he's fine.

1 THE COURT: Michael, I hope you understood that. And
2 Amanda as well. Even though it would still be technically a DOR
3 case, the payments would not go through DOR. The 228 would be 4 paid directly by Michael to Amanda. I don't know if that's 5 something that's acceptable to you or not, Michael or Amanda.

6 Let me start with Amanda first. If you could take Amanda
7 off mute first, Nyle.

8 THE COURT: Yeah.

9 THE COURT: So, Amanda Attorney Stephan has suggested what 10 he just suggested, is that something acceptable to you or not?

11 MS. KAELEBLEIN: I feel as though that's acceptable, so
12 it'll remain open, and then he pays me in good faith. And then 13 if he doesn't, then yeah.

14 THE COURT: Okay. All right. So the answer is yes. All
15 right. So, Nyle, put Amanda back on mute, please, and Michael -
16 - and Nyle, take Michael off of mute.

17 And, Michael, is that something acceptable to you or not?
18 You'd be paying Amanda directly, but technically, the DOR case
19 would still be open, but as long as you paid, we wouldn't be 20 back here by Zoom or any other way.

21 Michael, what do you say?

22 MR. SPEIGHT: I'll pay it. But, Your Honor, can I say one
23 thing, sir?

24 THE COURT: Go ahead.

25 MR. SPEIGHT: I haven't seen my child, and this is going on

1 six months.

2 THE COURT: All right, so you've --

3 MR. SPEIGHT: And I've been paying her the whole time.

4 THE COURT: You've got a case, -- apparently, Michael, you
5 get a case. Both of you admit you've got a case in New 6 Hampshire going on about custody and parenting time. There's a
7 dispute about whether it's child support or not, but if you file
8 that case, and if not, how long you been here -- put Michael 9 back on

10 -- on mute, Nyle, and take Amanda off mute.

11 Amanda, how long you been back to Massachusetts with the 12 child?

13 MS. KAELEBLEIN: I've been back since May. And, you know,
14 it's -- so we'll figure out parenting, obviously, but her
15 schooling and everything.

16 THE COURT: So has it been -- has it been -- has it been 17 more than six months?

18 MS. KAELEBLEIN: Mine and her legal residence has always 19 been Massachusetts. We resided with him for a short period of 20 time.

21 THE COURT: Amanda -- Amanda -- Amanda, please --

22 MS. KAELEBLEIN: That's how it is.

23 THE COURT: Answer my question. Has it --

24 MS. KAELEBLEIN: It's been for the last six months.

25 THE COURT: Amanda -- put her -- put her on -- put her on

1 mute again, please. I think we've reached a productive end to 2 our conversation.

3 So, Attorney Stephan, again, you can get a copy of the New 4 Hampshire filing and schedule this for a review date, and I'll 5 consider whether to enter a temporary order or not, with or 6 without a suspended wage assignment. And that will come in the 7 mail to the parties in roughly seven days or so. I've been 8 doing this for a while now. I've heard thousands of cases, and 9 I can count on less than two hands the number of times I've had 10 to put people on mute during the hearing. It's unfortunate I've 11 had to do it in this case to maintain order in this hearing, 12 unfortunately. But I do wish both of you well. Stay safe and 13 healthy. I hope you get the custody parenting time case
14 resolved in New Hampshire. Ultimately, it's about the child.
15 And good luck to both of you. And, Attorney Stephan, you'll 16 schedule another date for the hearing if we need it. Thank you
17 very much. It's 11:26 a.m. Hearing is concluded.

v.

Michael Sean Speight, Defendant

EX PARTE MOTION TO VACATE THE TEMPORARY ORDER ENTERED BY THE HONORABLE JUDGE PHELAN
ON NOVEMBER 3, 2022

Now comes the Massachusetts Department of Revenue, Child Support Enforcement Division (DOR), who respectfully requests that this Honorable Court vacate the Temporary Order entered in the above captioned matter on November 3, 2022.

As reason therefore, the Department states that it was the Court's intention on November 3, 2022, to continue the matter to a date and time to be determined by the DOR and not enter a Temporary Order for child support.

MASSACHUSETTS DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE
CHILD SUPPORT ENFORCEMENT DIVISION
By its attorney,

Date: 11/21/2022

Docket No. MI22W1174WD

AMENDED TEMPORARY ORDER OF SUPPORT
on Long Arm Complaint to Establish Support Pursuant to filed on 08/04/2022

Massachusetts Department of Revenue
Child Support Enforcement Division
on behalf of

Amanda Christine Kaelblein, Plaintiff v. Michael Sean Speight

, Defendant

Pending a hearing on the merits or until further order of the court, after hearing, all persons having been notified in accordance with the law, and ☒ plaintiff, ☒ defendant, ☒ counsel for DOR, ☐ counsel for plaintiff, ☐ counsel for defendant, ☐ interpreter / G.A.L. / DCF / P.O. having appeared today it is hereby ORDERED:

1. ☐ The parties shall comply with the stipulation or agreement dated _____ which is filed with the Court and expressly made a part of this order.
2. ☒ The ~~Mother~~ / Father shall pay current child support in the amount of $ 228.00 per week / ~~month~~ by suspended wage assignment effective Friday, November 4, 20 22. This child support amount is for 1 children, the child in this case, and the child(ren) in the case(s) with the following docket number(s): _____.
3. ☐ The Mother / Father is ordered to maintain MassHealth (or an equivalent program in another state) for the child.
☐ The Mother / Father must notify DOR (or the other parent if DOR is not providing services) if private health care coverage for the child becomes available to the parent.
☒ The Mother / ~~Father~~ is ordered to maintain/obtain private health care including ☒ dental ☒ vision coverage for the child.
☐ The child is presently receiving MassHealth (or an equivalent program in another state). The court finds that it is in the best interest of the child and does not create an undue hardship on the parties for Mother / Father to obtain private health care coverage for the child.
4. ☒ The obligation to pay current child support and provide health insurance for the child(ren) ends on the child(ren)'s ☐ 18th ☒ 21st ☐ 23rd birthday on ☐ _____ unless ordered otherwise.
5. The Mother / Father shall report to the Probation Department each _____ with evidence of having sought employment from _____ employers and shall comply with all terms and conditions established by Probation.
VIOLATION OF THIS PARAGRAPH MAY BE DEEMED CRIMINAL CONTEMPT OF COURT AND MAY SUBJECT THE DEFENDANT TO A JAIL SENTENCE OF UP TO SIX MONTHS.
6. This matter is continued for hearing on _____ a date and time TBD by DOR. ~~at _____ on _____~~
7. ☒ The Court notes that Father at some date in June 2022 filed litigation in the state of New Hampshire where Mother was then residing with the child, wherein Father sought custody and/or parenting time. The parties dispute whether Father also requested a child support ruling. It is not clear when Mother and the minor child returned to Massachusetts. Both parties agree that the New Hampshire court has set a date for November 15, 2022. Parties agree to $228.00 per week in child support, which shall be paid by Father directly to Mother and not through the Department of Revenue.
